COLONIAL LIFE & ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY,

Petitioner.

No. 08A-040-INS

DIRECTOR'S OFFICE INSURANCE DEPT. ORDER DENYING REQUEST FOR TELEPHONIC PRE-HEARING CONFERENCE

On June 12, 2008, the Arizona Department of Insurance ("Department") filed a Request for Telephonic Pre-Hearing Conference ("Request") in order to determine whether the Petitioner has a representative authorized by law to represent it at the scheduled administrative hearing. Petitioner did not file any response to the Request.

Previously, the Administrative Law Judge issued a Minute Entry addressing the issue of lawful representation of Petitioner at the administrative hearing. Consequently, it is determined that it is unnecessary to address the representation issue further and, therefore, there is no need for a pre-hearing conference. If at the scheduled administrative hearing, Petitioner is not properly represented, the Administrative Law Judge will consider the position of the Department at that time.

THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED denying the Request.

Done this day: June 30, 2008.

Lewis D. Kowal

Administrative Law Judge
