The Director of the Department of Insurance has reviewed the Recommended Decision and enters the following Order:

2. The Director revokes Respondent's Arizona producer's license, effective immediately.

No. 09A-038-INS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

HEARING: June 2, 2009

APPEARANCES: No one appeared for Respondent; Special Assistant Attorney General Mary E. Kosinski for the Department of Insurance

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Thomas Shedden

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On March 31, 2009, Department of Insurance issued a Notice of Hearing setting the above-captioned matter for 9:00 a.m. June 2, 2009.
2. Respondent, Nazish Hamid, did not appear at the scheduled time and the matter was convened in her absence at about 9:45 a.m.
3. The Department presented the testimony of Mr. Steven Fromholtz, the Department's Producer Licensing Administrator.
4. On May 1, 2008, the Department issued to Respondent credit producer license number 918225, which expires on October 31, 2011.
5. When the Department receives a complete license application, the applicant is issued a license, but the Department then conducts a background check on the applicant.
6. As part of the background check, the applicant's fingerprints are forwarded to the Arizona Department of Public Safety ("DPS"), which conducts a criminal history background check of the applicant that includes forwarding the applicant's fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

2 7. As part of her application, Respondent submitted her fingerprints to the 3 Department but DPS found that Respondent's fingerprints were not legible.

4 8. On July 7, 2008, the Department mailed a letter to Respondent at her business
5 address of record, informing her that her fingerprint card could not be processed
6 because the fingerprints were not legible. The Department informed Respondent that
7 she must submit a replacement set of fingerprints and enclosed a blank "Illegible
8 Replacement Fingerprint Form" for Respondent to use for that purpose. The 9 Department provided a deadline of August 5, 2008, for Respondent to submit the 10 Replacement Fingerprint Form.

11 9. The Department did not receive from Respondent the Replacement Fingerprint
12 Form. Consequently, in a letter dated December 23, 2008, the Department informed
13 Respondent that by January 14, 2009, she must either submit a replacement set of 14 fingerprints or surrender her license, and that failure to do so would result in the 15 Department initiating an administrative action against Respondent.

16 10. The Department mailed the letter dated December 23, 2008, to Respondent's 17 home address of record, rather than her business address, to increase the likelihood 18 that Respondent would receive notice that her fingerprints had been found to be 19 illegible.

20 11. Mr. Fromholtz testified that as of the hearing date, the Respondent has not
21 responded to the above-mentioned letters and has not submitted to the Department a
22 new set of fingerprints.

23 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

24 1. The Department bears the burden of persuasion. See A.R.S. § 41-
25 1092.07(G)(2).

26 2. The standard of proof on all issues is that of the preponderance of the evidence.
27 See A.AC. R2-19-119.

28 3. A preponderance of the evidence is "[e]vidence which is of greater weight or more
29 convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence which 30 as a whole shows that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not." BLACK'S
LAW DICTIONARY 1182 (6th ed. 1990).

1 4. Respondent was required to submit to the Department a full set of fingerprints
2 as part of her application, but because Respondent submitted fingerprints that were not
3 legible, she did not satisfy that requirement. See A.R.S. § 20-285(F)(2).

4 5. Because Respondent did not submit a complete set of fingerprints, she failed to
5 provide complete information with her license application, in violation of A.R.S. § 20-
6 295(A)(1).

7 6. Because Respondent has violated provisions of Title 20, she has also violated
8 A.R.S. § 20-295(A)(2).

9 7. Grounds exist for the Director of the Department to revoke Nazish Hamid's
10 license number 918225. See A.R.S. § 20-295(A).

11 ORDER

12 IT IS ORDERED that Nazish Hamid's license number 918225 is revoked on the 13 effective date of the Order entered in this matter.
